Forza Horizon 3 is designed to be a flexible experience. You can play it the way you want to. You can explore the world when you want, drive how you want, and do it all at your own pace. You can even race on your own schedule. When you're ready to take on the world, we've got you covered. We're committed to providing new ways to explore the world of Forza Horizon 3, one race at a time. As part of the Forza Horizon 3 Expansion Pass, Forza Horizon 3 Hot Wheels, will add a series of all-new stunt courses based around locations from around the globe. Whether you're an expert stunt driver, a budding car collector, or just a casual fan of arcade racing, exploring a new region means uncovering new Hot Wheels cars and letting them rip at breakneck speeds around the far-flung locales of Brazil, Germany, Africa, India, and the U.K. Now that Forza Horizon 3 is on Xbox One, you can enjoy 10 new free Cars, including the recently announced Kia Stinger GT, and eight new track layouts, all of which have been built for the game using the Havok physics system. The Forza Horizon 3 Hot Wheels Expansion Pack is available exclusively on both Xbox One and Windows 10 PCs (Xbox Play Anywhere). You can get the expansion as either as part of the Forza Horizon 3 Expansion Pass or as a standalone purchase for $19.99 in the Windows Store. As part of the Forza Horizon 3 Expansion Pass, Forza Horizon 3 Hot Wheels takes players to six new themed islands located off the coast of Australia; all connected by a network of Hot Wheels tracks positioned hundreds of feet in the air featuring classic Hot Wheels configurations like loops, corkscrews, and more. This is stunt driving at its most extreme, where you can master tracks by performing brand new Hot Wheels skills that make use of boost pads, high-bank turns, half-pipes, insane jumps, and even giant mechanical dinosaurs. If you're looking to get creative, check out the new Stunt Swap feature to modify stunt track sections and dare your friends to try them. 5ec8ef588b
